

God - Our Father

Understanding the father/child relationship will transform our prayer. It will answer questions like How? When? How often? What do I say?

Two ways to approach God

1) Like pagans

2) Like children

Prayer is not about asking for things - But God is glorified when we ask.

You say "Our Father" but are you praying to our Father?

Business or family relationship with God. Boarder or child.

What is your reaction if prayers go unanswered?

Jesus didn't start the Lord's prayer with Our King or Our Creator.

Pagans can't pray like Christians but all too often Christians pray like pagans.

Our Daily Bread. Bug God with shameless audacity at least once a day.

Prayer is all about admitting you are totally reliant on God for everything.
