Study 1: Life and birth of Jesus

Many have undertaken to draw up an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us, <sup>2</sup> just as they were handed down to us by those who from the first were eyewitnesses and servants of the word. <sup>3</sup> With this in mind, since I myself have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I too decided to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, <sup>4</sup> so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.

Study 2

Death of Jesus

<sup>13:1</sup> Before the Passover Festival, Jesus knew that His hour had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end. 2 Now by the time of supper, the Devil had already put it into the heart of Judas, Simon Iscariot's son, to betray Him. <sup>3</sup> Jesus knew that the Father had given everything into His hands, that He had come from God, and that He was going back to God. <sup>4</sup> So He got up from supper, laid aside His robe, took a towel, and tied it around Himself. <sup>5</sup> Next, He poured water into a basin and began to wash His disciples' feet and to dry them with the towel tied around Him. <sup>6</sup> He came to Simon Peter, who asked Him, "Lord, are You going to wash my feet?"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus answered him, "What I'm doing you don't understand now, but afterward you will know." <sup>8</sup> "You will never wash my feet—ever!" Peter said. Jesus replied, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with Me." <sup>9</sup> Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, not only my feet, but also my hands and my head."<sup>10</sup> "One who has bathed," Jesus told him, "doesn't need to wash anything except his feet, but he is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you." <sup>11</sup> For He knew who would betray Him. This is why He said, "You are not all clean."
