

Psalms:
Some of David's greatest hits
Bible-studies

Many of the Psalms that we have in the bible were written by King David. In these psalms we get a glimpse into the life and experience of God's chosen king ('Messiah') as he journeys through times of despair and hardship through to times of God given triumph and joy.

These Psalms point us to the life and experience of Jesus, the true and better David (cf. 2 Samuel 7), who reigns as God's chosen king forever.

Jesus then gives these Psalms to his people as we suffer with him and join with him on his journey to triumph.

"The Psalms catch us up in the life of the messiah and by accompanying him on his journey of suffering and glory we enthroned God on our praises."

Psalms in the life of the church", (Apollos: 2013), p180.)

Study 1: Psalm 3

A psalm of David when he fled from his son Absalom.

LORD, how my foes increase!

There are many who attack me.

² Many say about me,

"There is no help for him in God." Selah

³ *But You, LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, and the One who lifts up my head.

⁴ *I cry aloud to the LORD, and He answers me from His holy mountain. Selah

⁵ I lie down and sleep;

I wake again because the LORD sustains me.

⁶ *I am not afraid of the thousands of people who have taken their stand against me on every side.

⁷ Rise up, LORD! Save me, my God!

You strike all my enemies on the cheek;

You break the teeth of the wicked.

⁸ *Salvation belongs to the LORD;
may Your blessing be on Your people. Selah

Comprehend

1. When was this originally sung, and think about why?
(2 Samuel 15 for the full story)
2. The psalm is broken into 4 sections by the word 'Selah'.
How does David's mindset change across the 4 sections?
3. Absalom is David's son and he tries to usurp David's rule. How does this help us understand the Psalm?
4. Who does David expect to save him?

Study 5:
Psalm 23

A psalm of David.

*The LORD is my shepherd,
I shall not be in want.*

² *He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters,*

³ he restores my soul.

He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴ Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil, for you are with me;

your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

⁵ You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

⁶ Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life,

and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Study 2:
Psalm 8

For the choir director: on the Gittith. A Davidic psalm.

LORD, our Lord, how magnificent is Your name throughout the earth!

You have covered the heavens with Your majesty.

² Because of Your adversaries,

You have established a stronghold from the mouths of children and nursing infants, to silence the enemy and the avenger.

³ When I observe Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You set in place,

⁴ what is man that You remember him, the son of man that You look after him?

⁵ You made him little less than God and crowned him with glory and honor.

⁶ You made him lord over the works of Your hands; You put everything under his feet:

⁷ all the sheep and oxen, as well as animals in the wild,

⁸ birds of the sky, and fish of the sea passing through the currents of the seas.

⁹ LORD, our Lord, how magnificent is Your name throughout the earth!

¹³ Moreover, keep Your servant from willful sins;
do not let them rule over me.
Then I will be innocent,
and cleansed from blatant rebellion.

¹⁴ May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to You, LORD, my rock and my Redeemer.

Comprehend

Study 3: Psalm 18

For the choir director. Of the servant of the LORD, David, who spoke the words of this song to the LORD on the day the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He said:

I love You, LORD, my strength.

² The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer, my God, my mountain where I seek refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

³ I called to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I was saved from my enemies.

⁴ The ropes of death were wrapped around me; the torrents of destruction terrified me.

⁵ The ropes of Sheol entangled me; the snares of death confronted me.

⁶ I called to the LORD in my distress, and I cried to my God for help.

From His temple He heard my voice, and my cry to Him reached His ears.

⁷ Then the earth shook and quaked; the foundations of the mountains trembled; they shook because He burned with anger.

⁸ Smoke rose from His nostrils, and consuming fire came from His mouth; coals were set ablaze by it.

⁹ He parted the heavens and came down, a dark cloud beneath His feet.

¹⁰ He rode on a cherub and flew, soaring on the wings of the wind.

¹¹ He made darkness His hiding place, dark storm clouds His canopy around Him.

¹² From the radiance of His presence, His clouds swept onward with hail and blazing coals.

¹⁴ He shot His arrows and scattered them; He hurled lightning bolts and routed them.

Study 4:
Psalm 19

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm.

The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky proclaims the work of His hands.

² Day after day they pour out speech; night after night they communicate knowledge.

³ There is no speech; there are no words; their voice is not heard.

⁴ Their message has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the inhabited world. In the heavens He has pitched a tent for the sun.

⁵ It is like a groom coming from the bridal chamber; it rejoices like an athlete running a course.

⁶ It rises from one end of the heavens and circles to their other end; nothing is hidden from its heat.

⁷ The instruction of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the LORD is trustworthy, making the inexperienced wise.

⁸ The precepts of the LORD are right, making the heart glad; the commandment of the LORD is radiant, making the eyes light up.

⁹ The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the LORD are reliable and altogether righteous.

¹⁰ They are more desirable than gold-- than an abundance of pure gold; and sweeter than honey-- than honey dripping from the comb.

¹¹ In addition, Your servant is warned by them; there is great reward in keeping them.

¹² Who perceives his unintentional sins? Cleanse me from my hidden faults.

11. Should we expect God to protect us from hardship or help us in our hardship?
12. How can David's response to trouble help us in our times of trouble?

¹⁵ The depths of the sea became visible, the foundations of the world were exposed,
at Your rebuke, LORD,
at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

¹⁶ He reached down from on high and took hold of me;
He pulled me out of deep waters.

¹⁷ He rescued me from my powerful enemy and from those who hated me,
for they were too strong for me.

¹⁸ They confronted me in the day of my distress, but the LORD was my support.

¹⁹ He brought me out to a wide-open place;
He rescued me because He delighted in me.

²⁰ The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness;
He repaid me according to the cleanness of my hands.

²¹ For I have kept the ways of the LORD and have not turned from my God to wickedness.

²² Indeed, I have kept all His ordinances in mind and have not disregarded His statutes.

²³ I was blameless toward Him and kept myself from sinning.

²⁴ So the LORD repaid me according to my righteousness,
according to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

²⁵ With the faithful You prove Yourself faithful;
with the blameless man You prove Yourself blameless;

²⁶ with the pure You prove Yourself pure, but with the crooked You prove Yourself shrewd.

²⁷ For You rescue an afflicted people, but You humble those with haughty eyes.

²⁸ LORD, You light my lamp;
my God illuminates my darkness.

²⁹ With You I can attack a barrier, and with my God I can leap over a wall.

³⁰ God-- His way is perfect;
the word of the LORD is pure.
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

³¹ For who is God besides the LORD?

And who is a rock?

Only our God.

³² God-- He clothes me with strength and makes my way perfect.

³³ He makes my feet like the feet of a deer and sets me securely on the heights.

³⁴ He trains my hands for war;
my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

³⁵ You have given me the shield of Your salvation;
Your right hand upholds me, and Your humility exalts me.

³⁶ You widen a place beneath me for my steps, and my ankles do not give way.

³⁷ I pursue my enemies and overtake them;
I do not turn back until they are wiped out.

³⁸ I crush them, and they cannot get up;
they fall beneath my feet.

³⁹ You have clothed me with strength for battle;
You subdue my adversaries beneath me.

⁴⁰ You have made my enemies retreat before me;
I annihilate those who hate me.

⁴¹ They cry for help, but there is no one to save them-- they cry to the LORD, but He does not answer them.

⁴² I pulverize them like dust before the wind;
I trample them like mud in the streets.

⁴³ You have freed me from the feuds among the people;
You have appointed me the head of nations;
a people I had not known serve me.

⁴⁴ Foreigners submit to me grudgingly;
as soon as they hear, they obey me.

⁴⁵ Foreigners lose heart and come trembling from their fortifications.

⁴⁶ The LORD lives-- may my rock be praised!
The God of my salvation is exalted.

⁴⁷ God-- He gives me vengeance and subdues peoples under me.

⁴⁸ He frees me from my enemies.
You exalt me above my adversaries;
You rescue me from violent men.

⁴⁹ Therefore I will praise You, LORD, among the nations;
I will sing about Your name.

⁵⁰ He gives great victories to His king;
He shows loyalty to His anointed,
to David and his descendants forever.
